

WA Clean Beaches Awards Winner 2008

Scarborough Beach cleans up awards

Scarborough Beach cleaned up the competition and picked up Western Australia's best beach title in the Clean Beaches awards held at the Cottesloe Surf Life Saving Club on 19 February 2008.

Paul Andrew, Surf Life Saving Australia, David Bootham (Mayor, City of Stirling), The Hon. David Templeman (Minister for the Environment; Climate Change); Mel Hay (Chair, Keep Australia Beautiful Council)

In addition to winning the overall title Scarborough also took out the award for litter prevention and friendliest beach. Cottlesloe Beach picked up two awards, community action and protection of the environment, and Rockingham Beach received the resource management award. Scarborough Beach is a finalist in the Australian Clean Beaches Awards.